

Department of Health and Hospitals
Office for Addictive Disorders
305PUR_DHHRFP_COOCURRING-OBH

Name of Facility: Red River Co-Occurring Disorders Unit

Location: CLSH Unit 6 Wing B

Number of Beds: 27

Average Daily Census: 26

Utilization Rate: 96.37 %

Number of Staff: 32+4 WAE = 36

Services Provided: Psychiatric and substance abuse assessments, diagnosis, treatment, group counseling, individual counseling, gender specific group counseling, trauma counseling group and individual, family therapy, collateral counseling, case management, education, breath analysis, drug screening collection, HIV service, medical history, psychosocial evaluations, STD Service, pregnancy testing, occupational therapy, recreational therapy, aftercare, self help group DRA, gambling counseling and education in individual and group counseling.

Sources of Referrals:

Admission to RRCOD program requires a client to be screened by a single point of entry, which includes OAD Outpatient or Detoxification Programs or other programs approved by the accepting facility. The client must have a diagnosis of substance use disorder and mental health disorder. Referrals are accepted on a statewide basis.
